Top Steer $1 Per Pound in Four-H Auction

By ERNEST J. NEILL

Although the over-all average of $29 44 cwt topped 1955, the highest price paid in the Thursday auction of Southeast District 4-H Livestock Show fell to $1 per pound, six cents under the 1955 high.

There seemed to be a lack of buyers in the stands at Lancaster Stock Yards, or a lack of buyers willing to pay real money that would put the Southeast on a par with others in the nation. Nevertheless, almost 144 tons of beef and three tons of lamb sold, grossing a total $86,272.76.

One buyer commented there was a lack of prime quality in the offerings, with but a small percentage that would dress out choice No comparable offerings were listed in the day's run at Lancaster Union Stock Yards. In the week to Wednesday, the day preceding the 4-H auction, the bulk of good and choice fed steers sold at $20 50 to $25 50 on the open market with a few prime and mixed high choice and prime at $28.

Grossing 287,355 lbs, the 290 head of steers figured $29.44, and 70 head of lambs, totaling 6,295 lbs, sold at an average of $26.26 cwt.

Miss Verna Landis, R4 Lancaster, whose trim Angus led all breeds in the Round-Up, saw her Mickey the 3rd sell at $1 per lb, grossing around $950 on the bid of Crystal Restaurant, Reading.

James Queisenberry, Jr , of R1 Stewartstown, York County, sold his 970-lb Hereford, show reserve champion for — 61 cents a pound to Evans Restaurant, Manheim. The champion Shorthorn, shown by Kenneth E. Miller, R2 Manheim, sold at 37 1-2 cents a pound to Frank Fisher, York Reserve Angus, shown by Donald G. Herr, R2 Quarryville, sold at $36 cwt, weighing 1060 lbs, to George Greiner of Warnersville, Pa. Fred Bernhard, R2 Mt. Joy, saw his reserve champion Hereford auctioned off to Hildebrand Meat Market of Strasburg for $35 cwt. Jay Esbenshade, R2 Elizabethtown, scored $34 cwt on his reserve Shorthorn, the 970-pounder selling to J. Fred Fisher of York

Crystal Restaurant purchased several head. The Lancaster County National Bank,

Notables Show in Timonium Exposition

Reading the roster of exhibitors at the Eastern National Livestock Show, one finds a galaxy of noted names, from Oscar Hammerstein II to Everett Crosby.

Others among those showing were Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney of Kentucky, and breeders whose names are far known in purebred livestock circles Press coverage was perhaps the heaviest the Timonium show has witnessed.

Ernie Frey, 18, Wins Reserve with Angus Steer at Eastern National

By ERNEST J. NEILL

TIMONIUM, Md. — Competing in a field of 266 Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn steers, Ernst Frey, 18, R2 Quarryville, Monday scored reserve championship in the quality packed Eastern National Livestock Exposition 4-H Club and FFA steer show.

His Angus, Champy, this fall stood as champion of the Southern Lancaster County Community Fair at Quarryville and stood second in the big-league show only to a Hereford, "Ike," shown by Joe Walker of Norfolk, Va Ike previously had been crowned junior champion steer at the 1956 Atlantic Rural Exposition

ERNIE FREY, R2 Quarryville, this week walked off with reserve championship in the steer show at the Eastern National Livestock Exposition in Timonium, Md.

Ernie earlier topped a field of 112 Angus that represented entries from Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York, Virginia, and West Virginia. In doing so, he repeated the reserve scored by his brother, Fred, at the Eastern National four years ago.

Champy, who came to southern Lancaster County from William W Brainard, Jr's Downsbragh Farms at Far Hills, N J , caught the eye of Robert Long, University of Kentucky beef cattle specialist, who judged the event that packed the stands.

Later Ernie went on to help Lancaster County score first in County Group of Five honors, with Angus led into the ring by him, Paul Mast, R2 Elverson; Kenneth Rutt, Peach Bottom, Clyde Brubaker, R1 Ephrata, and Henry Greiner, R4 Manheim

This year's Eastern National shows the growth of interest in east coast livestock, with more than 2000 head of animals entered from 27 states, from California to Florida, from Florida north. More than

Ernie Frey Meets Scotland Breeders

Ernie Frey, Lancaster County youth whose Angus steer placed reserve at the Eastern National this week, had the opportunity of meeting two breeders of Angus from the home of Angus.

Visiting Timonium were William F. Reid from Fordhouse of Dun in Montrose, and Pat J. Fairlie, from Kirktos Farm, Dundee, Scotland.

Top Steer At Timonium $5.10 Per Pound High

By ERNEST J. NEILL

Timonium, Md — Selling to a Pennsylvania firm, a prizewinning Pennsylvania State University Angus steer Wednesday set a new Eastern National Livestock Exposition sales record, going at $5 10 per pound

Buyer was Abergast and Bastion of Allentown for a Pennsylvania Inn

Meanwhile one of the strongest beef cattle shows in the history of the nation's fourth-ranking livestock exposition — largest in the East, is becoming history.

Champions were crowned Wednesday with some of the country's best herds represented Hi-Point Farms, Brighton, Mich, showed the champion Hereford bull, M & M Zato Dominie, a Feb 1, 1955 son of TR Zato Heir 262nd out of Lady Dominie 3d. Reserve was an entry of Caw Caw Plantation, Orangeburg, S. C, the two-year-old Larry G. Domino 51st

In Angus, Ankony Farms, Rhinebeck, N Y showed the top bull, Ankonian OB 59th, a summer yearling Reserve was Dor-Mac's Bardolhermere 60th, shown by Mole's Hill Farm, Millertown, N Y and J C. McClean, Quincy, Ill Ankony returned in the female division to take first on their summer yearling heifer, Ankony Elba Erica 56th. while reserve was Miss Blackcap CLC, shown by Marion Harper, Jr, Staunton, Va.

Tables were turned in Shorthorns where two veteran herds were pitted against each other, W. C. Anderson & Sons of West Liberty, Iowa, and Mathers Bros., consistent winners from Mason City, Ill. The Iowa bull, a summer yearling, WL Ala Prince placed as grand champion for the Andersons, and reserve was a senior yearling bull. Leveldale Virile, shown by Mathers.

In meat judging, collegiate teams from Wisconsin placed first, Penn State second, North Carolina State third, Michigan State fourth and Ohio State fifth.

Penn State, continuing winnings in the open steer show and other purebred breeds, placed first in lamb grading. The Penn State steer was PS Eileenmere. Ankony bred. Second place was a Penn State Shorthorn, PS Troubadour, bred at Penn State.

Throughout, quality was excellent, with breeders in all divisions saying competition here was as tough as had been encountered on the tanbark trail this season. Winners from the American Royal, herds that will enter the International, were on hand

TIMONIUM ANGUS $5000

HOT POTATOES, POLITICAL HAY

Voters last week proved where they stand by returning President Eisenhower with an overwhelming majority. Today the superlatives are missing, but what lies ahead?

First, it seems evident that President Eisenhower will maintain his cabinet, and throughout he has given full support to his Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson. Secretary Benson, normally a quiet going man, stepped into the campaign trail with the vigor of a veteran and faced the issues as they arose.

He has been criticized for his programs. Many are wondering what happened to the so-called farm revolt that was fuming in the middle west. Some farmers asserted they do not approve of GOP farm policies, but they give President Eisenhower credit for maintaining peace.

Secretary Benson in his speeches throughout the nation made it clear he inherited a farm program fostered in wartime, and the plan — with subsidies and guarantees — had grown to such dimensions it could not be dropped. To put it more on the farm level, it seems a case of holding a bull by the tail — it's dangerous to let go.

What lies ahead? President Eisenhower has a Democratic Congress. He wants to continue his campaign of getting the government out of the farming business. On the other hand, it is expected the Democratic forces, and they are in the majority, will continue efforting for increased government aid to agriculture, facing possible veto by the President.

Will the farmer go through this year's experience again? One farm bill met presidential veto. The second, the Soil Bank, was passed, but passed so late it could have little effect on crops already planted. No one wanted to return to the days of the 30s when crops were plowed under. Enforcement of the Soil Bank was impossible. Little by little restrictions were eased, until compliance and non-compliance were almost synonymous, without penalties for those who strayed aside.

It's likely that more Presidential vetoes will develop. The farm issue has been both a hot potato and political hay. Many an ingredient will be added to find a measure whose taste is pleasing to all in the farm business.

Hot potatoes, political hay — and add another simile, the political football. It will be interesting to see if a determined farm plan may be devised, one that will return farming to the farmer. The road between Washington and the farm is rough, bumpy and dangerous.

DOWN THE TANBARK TRAIL

The season's started again. It's time for the tanbark trail, with the big shows that come as a postlude to the community fairs. This week, the Eastern National at Timonium; coming up, the International, the acme of show business; not far away, Pennsylvania's Farm Show.

For youth, these are great days. Just look at last week's Southeast District Show in Lancaster. Earlier winners were there. But we encountered one comment that is food for thought: an old-timer in the livestock show business commented that some earlier winners in smaller shows were still riding on glories of earlier winnings, forgetting that continued care and grooming is necessary to bring the proper bloom that will catch the judge's eye. One win does not insure many. Declining slightly in condition, earlier winners took a back seat in some cases to comparative newcomers.

But it was fun to watch the youth met earlier in the season at Lancaster County community fairs strike their heavyiest competition. They did themselves proud. Higher and higher they move. The interest in beef cattle here is most encouraging. Like poultrymen on a recent beef cattle tour, several dairymen from the Garden Spot were seen on the sidelines getting tips on what the beef business is like, preparatory to launching their youngsters on a steer project.

Lancaster County, as host, did an excellent job on the Southeast District 4-H Baby Beef and Lamb Club Show. [illegible] was in charge of Mrs. Anna Herr.

WILD PARSNIPS POISON 38

At Millsboro, Pa., two men were dead and 36 others seriously ill from eating wild parsnips. The men lived at a boarding house and the parsnips were served at the evening meal. Physicians were summoned but before their arrival two of the boarders were dead and several others were expected to die.

At Treskow, Pa., that week in November, 1906, John Lausauer was killed instantly at his home while towing a barrel of sauerkraut from the kitchen to the cellar. Lausauer was being assisted by his wife in moving the barrel. While descending the flight of steps, the barrel upset, knocking him down and crushing him to death.

HORSE TIES UP TROLLEY SERVICE

A horse owned by the Lancaster Electric Light Company, hitched to a buggy, became frightened near Millersville and took off down the tracks of the York Furnace trolley line, finally reaching the bridge over the Conestoga Creek, where the animal went through between the ties, remaining in that position until discovered by a trolley motorman. The horse's feet and legs had gone through the ties on the trestle. Boards, rails and ropes were procured and it was two and a half hours before the animal was liberated Except for a few cuts and bruises, the horse was none the worse from its experience The buggy was slightly damaged

The career of a destructive rabid dog whose ravages left a trail of death and disaster through upper Cecil County, Md., and the lower townships of Chester County, Pa., was terminated by a well directed shot on the Mearns farm, near Calvert, after it had been pursued by a party of armed men for nearly two weeks. The dog, declared the most ferocious on record, killed nearly 200 chickens and ducks, bit two women, three men, more than 25 dogs and a number of pigs, before it was finally killed.

25 Years Ago

Rabbit raisers, thousands of them in the suburbs of Los Angeles, Calif., and hundreds of thousands in other sections of the country, proposed to make canned "chicken a la king" of rabbit meat to increase incomes from rabbit fur. The U. S. Food Administration issued a cold warning. "It is impossible to make canned chicken a la king from rabbit meat." But the promoters of the proposal pointed out that any good French cook could make chicken a la king out of rabbit meat with the greatest of ease and make it better than an average cook could out of chicken.

Twenty-five years ago, the National Grange Convention in session at Madison, Wis., aproved a report asking the United States Government to use its influence in preventing war in Manchuria. The request was contained in a report submitted by the foreign relations committee, headed by E. B. Dorsett, master of the Pennsylvania State Grange. The committee's report also favored reduction of armaments. Inclusion of a farmer on the United States delegation to the disarmament conference was recommended.

HUNTS RABBITS ON TRACTOR

Morris Mohler, proprietor of the Grandview Farms, utilized his tractor to hunt rabbits, 25 years ago. He shot the limit without leaving the seat of the ponderous machine. Another story was told of a farmer, residing within a distance of two miles from Christiana who thought nothing of running his tractor to the store when he ran out of chewing tobacco. He admitted it provoked his wife, but he explained: "It is her privilege to chew the rag and mine to chew tobacco."

KILLED ACCIDENTALLY

KENTLAND, Md. — Arthur R. Tripplett, 15, died almost instantly in a wooded tract when one of the boy's two hunting companions put his gun on the ground. The trigger apparently was tripped and the load struck the boy in the chest. The three boys were squirrel hunting when the tragedy occurred.

Christian Persons

Lesson for November 18, 1956

WHICH is more important, what a person is or what he does? According to Jesus, what a person is, is the main thing. These two cannot be separated. On the one hand a person does what he does because he is the kind of person he is; on the other hand a person cannot be the kind of character Jesus describes, without doing. The ideal character, as Jesus draws it, is not to be grown in a hot-house nor in a cellar like mushrooms. An ideal person develops only in a world of persons. But let us see. Every one of what we call the eight "Beatitudes" or "Blessed's" needs very careful study. All one thin column can do is to call attention in a very general way to three facts about Christian persons as Jesus pictures them here. Perhaps no actual Christian every fully matches the picture, the ideal; but the more a Christian resembles this description, the more these three facts will be true about him.

Dr. Foreman

A Christian is Happy

Again and again in reading the Bible we come to something that shows what nonsense it is to think of the Christian life, the God-pleasing life, as a sort of prison existence. God's requirements are not like chains, weights, handcuffs, barbed wire, electric fences. They are what makes life truly free and strong. When Jesus describes the ideal—God's ideal—character, in these Beatitudes, he begins every sentence with the word which, though often translated "blessed", was the regular ordinary word for "happy." Some people get the whole business of what it means to be a Christian, sadly twisted. They think: What a Christian has to do, and be is not pleasant; but he grits his teeth and goes through with his hard task bravely, knowing that God will reward him for his life of martyrdom. Not at all. According to Jesus, the ideal character is the one that finds real joy in becoming more and more like our Father in heaven. Your real athlete is the man who enjoys sports, not the man who goes out for athletics only so as to earn a "letter." Your real artist is the person who loves to paint or write, not the man who writes or paints only because he has to, to make money. Your real cook is the man or woman who enjoys cooking, not the one who feels like a martyr over a kitchen range. So your real Christian is the one who is happy being one.

Christian Life Flows Outward

A second fact about the Christian life is that it is not self-centered but flows outward. It is not like a swamp into which streams flow without ever finding an outlet; it is more like a mountain lake, fed by fresh springs and kept fresh because its water flow on in a sparkling river. A person cannot be truly good if he lives to himself and for himself. Consider how many of the Beatitudes could be true of a hermit living on an island apart from other people. Very few, if any. A selfish Christian is a contradiction in terms. "Love thy neighbor as thyself" is a commandment older than Christianity; but Christ himself approved it. "What do I get?" is not the Christian's first question, but "How may I help?" This does not mean that a good Christian is a kind of meddlesome Mattie, running around sticking his finger into other people's affairs. It does mean that in the countless human contacts which he has everyday, as well as in his whole life-plan, he will not think of the world of men as merely an orange which is his to squeeze.

Out of Line?

Now a man from Mars might think that Christians would be the most popular people in the world. Everybody would love them and want them around. As a matter of fact, we have to remember that Jesus himself was bitterly hated and finally crucified. In the Beatitudes themselves there is the prediction that "all manner of evil" things will be said of Christ's followers. The simple, ugly reason for this is that this is a world still mostly out of line with God, which in other words means out of line with Love. The true Christian will always seem somewhat out of line with this world. If all men speak well of you, there must be something wrong with you.

ERNIE FREY, 18, Quarryville, this week placed reserve in the huge 4-H and FFA steer show at the 1956 Eastern National Livestock Exposition in Timonium, Md. He was presented his purple ribbon by Herschel H. Allen, Jr., president of the livestock show.

Pennsylvania Farmers Association Debates Truck Fee Reductions

Whether to ask the 1957 General Assembly for a reduction in the license fee for farm trucks is a question that will be debated Nov. 20 at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Farmers' Association. Proposals have been made by a number of County Farmers Associations which would reduce the farm truck license fees from 50 to 75 per cent A farm truck is defined as one that is used solely by a farmer to haul his own produce

Voting delegates from 30 organized counties will adopt a policy on the question Nov 20 at the Holiday Motor Hotel near Harrisburg.

Another quetstion up for consideration is whether Pennsylvania should enact a compulsory insurance law. More than half of the county Farmers Association which have reported on this question have expressed approval of legislation which would provide for compulsory insurance on automobiles It is expected that more than 300 farmers will attend the two-day session, which marks the sixth anniversary of the Farmers Association, which is affiliated with the American Farm Bureau.

Charles Shuman, President of the American Farm Bureau will address the annual banquet on Monday evening, Nov 19 Dr Kenneth Hood, formerly with Penn State University, and now with the American Farm Bureau, will address the noon luncheon on Tuesday, Nov 20.

ANSWERS YOUR QUESTIONS

Q. My layers seem rundown! What can I do to help them?

A. My advice is, use Dr. Salsbury's Avi-Tab. This appetizing tonic for poultry builds up run-down birds, perks up lazy layers. Just mix Avi-Tab in the mash for 10 days and see the difference. Keep egg production high, save yourself loss from culls. Use Avi-Tab regularly and practice good management. Follow up any disease treatment with Avi-Tab!

For the Farm Wife and Family

Be Generous With The Stuffing

Two kinds of stuffing and stuffing for all is the order of festive boards these days. It helps make the table groan and satisfies varying palates. Stuff the bird with the traditional family recipe and serve on the side a decorative casserole of pineapple stuffing.

PINEAPPLE STUFFIN'

2 tablespoons onion flakes
2 tablespoons parsley flakes
1½ cups water
2 bags cubed Arnold Stuffin'
½ cup butter
¼ cup crushed pineapple
4 canned pineapple rings
¼ cup almonds blanched
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup butter

Soak onion and parsley flakes in water. Mix with stuffin' and add the half cup butter melted and the crushed pineapple. Put into greased two-quart baking dish. Decorate with slices of pineapple brushed with melted butter. Bake uncovered in a 350° F. oven for approximately 45 minutes. Add blanched almonds which have been browned in butter and salted.

* * *

Well, here we are, halfway through the month of November already and it is time to think about the traditional turkey and all its trimmings. Most of us have favorite recipes that we use year after year but sometimes our taste yearns for some new flavor or delicacy. Then it is time to get out the cookbooks and the recipe files to see what can be done about satisfying that yen.

Do you always use a bread dressing for your turkey? Why not try a chestnut dressing for a change?

CHESTNUT DRESSING

Emma Fox, R3 Ephrata

Two pounds chestnuts
One tablespoon olive oil
One-half cup melted butter
Four cups bread crumbs, two days old or two cups freshly mashed potatoes and two cups bread crumbs
One-fourth teaspoon pepper
Onion seasoning

Turkey and sweet potatoes go together like pie and ice cream Here are some recipes sent in by Mrs. Edwin B Rutt, Rheems She says:

I enjoy the Lancaster Farming paper, especially the recipe page and the dress patterns, because I am a housewife and have children two boys and a girl and I do a lot of sewing.

Here are two recipes for sweet potato pie requested by Mrs. David Longenecker.

SWEET POTATO PIE I

Mrs. Edwin B. Rutt, Rheems

One-half recipe plain pastry
One and one-half cups mashed sweet potatoes
Two tablespoons butter, melted
One-half cup brown sugar
One teaspoon cinnamon
One-half teaspoon ginger
One-half teaspoon salt
Two eggs beaten
One and three-fourths cups milk

Line pie plate with pastry Combine remaining ingredients in order listed and pour into pastry shell. Bake in hot oven 450 degrees for 10 minutes then reduce to 350 degrees and bake 45 minutes longer or until firm Makes one nine-inch pie.

* * *

SWEET POTATO PIE II

Mrs. Edwin B. Rutt, Rheems

One and one-half cups boiled mashed sweet potato
One egg beaten
Sugar to taste
Salt
Two tablespoons butter
One cup milk

Mix in order given. Bake in one crust in hot oven 450 degrees until lightly browned Flavor with rum if desired Makes one nine-inch pie.

* * *

Mrs Rutt also includes two of her favorite cake recipes.

DATE AND NUT CAKE

Mrs. Edwin B. Rutt, Rheems

Mix together:
One cup granulated sugar
One tablespoon butter
One egg
Then mix:
One cup chopped dates
One scant teaspoon soda over the dates
One cup boiling water
Add to first mixture, then add
One and one-half cups sifted flour
One teaspoon vanilla
One cup chopped English walnuts

Put in square cake pan and bake at 350 degrees F. Very delicious. Ice with caramel icing.

CHOCOLATE CAKE

Mrs. Edwin B. Rutt, Rheems

Three-fourths cup lard
Two and one-half cups granulated sugar
Three eggs
Two level teaspoons soda
One teaspoon cream of tartar
Three cups flour
Two cups water
One cup cocoa
Pinch of salt and a little red coloring. This is a real dark cake and moist. Bake at 350 degrees.

* * *

Mrs. Rutt adds a P. S. ". . . I would like to know how to make tomato soup without having it curdle.

Here is a suggestion: try stirring a pinch of soda into the milk.

REQUEST

From Mrs. V. A. Shirk, R2 Narvon comes this letter: I wonder if some readers of the Lancaster Farming would have a recipe for Sweet Potato Patties.

I enjoy your paper very much, wishing you the best for the coming year. (Thanks, Mrs. Shirk.)

There are few people who don't like apple dumplings Here is a recipe for some baked with a sauce

BAKED APPLE DUMPLINGS

Mrs. Wm. J. Sprout, R1 Drumore

Make a biscuit dough or use biscuit mix

To make the dough, sift together:

Two cups all purpose flour (sifted before measuring)
One teaspoon baking powder
Three-fourth teaspoon salt
Six tablespoons vegetable shortening or lard

Cut in shortening until mixture is like coarse corn meal.

Sprinkle six tablespoons cold water over mixture and knead until smooth.

Divide dough into four or five equal portions and roll out on floured board to one-fourth inch thick and about seven inches square. Place peeled cored apple in center of each square, fill core of apple with brown sugar and butter and a sprinkle of cinnamon Fold dough over apple so apple is completely covered and seal dough by pinching moistened corners together. Place in baking dish greased with butter, sealed side down Prick dough with fork. Make a sauce as follows.

One tablespoon cornstarch
One cup brown sugar
One and one-half cups water
Three tablespoons butter

Boil together until thick Then cool and pour over apples before baking. Bake in a hot oven 425 degrees 45 to 50 minutes. Serve hot with milk or cream.

This is Friday and here is a recipe just for today. Mrs. Norman V. Getz includes a recipe for Friday Nite Dish in her letter. She says:

Received a copy of Lancaster Farming. I do enjoy it a lot (the recipes I've been trying since I get the copies and they all turned out good). The household hints are also very helpful. I am enclosing a $1.00 bill for the copies and also giving a few recipes.

FRIDAY NITE DISH

Mrs. Norman V. Getz, R3 Manheim

Three slices bacon (chopped and fried)
Four medium potatoes (diced)
One cup celery (chopped)
One large onion (sliced)
Salt to season
Pepper
Add enough water to boil the ingredients above soft.
Add two hard boiled eggs.
Add milk and thicken with flour as a gravy.

* * *

BANANA CAKE

Mrs. Norman V. Getz, R3 Manheim

One and one-half cup granulated sugar
One-half cup shortening
Two eggs
One-half cup thick milk

Combine Apples, Cottage Cheese.

Cottage cheese mixed with chopped apples, almonds, or pecans gives an interesting salad texture, says Louise Hamilton, Penn State extension nutrition specialist.

Here are some recipes from a reader from R1 Millersville who says that her family of five especially likes this pumpkin pie recipe.

PUMPKIN PIE
Mrs. Wilmer Bitner,
R1 Millersville

Three and one-half cups pumpkin
Two cups brown sugar or one of granulated sugar
One tablespoon flour
One-fourth cup brown butter
One-fourth teaspoon nutmeg
One-fourth teaspoon cloves
One teaspoon cinnamon and sprinkle some on top of pies
Two or three eggs
One and one-half cups milk

Add all the ingredients but brown butter last before you put in pie crust. This makes three nine-inch pies Bake at 375 degrees until brown about 15 or 20 minutes.

Look For Danish Cabbage

"Danish" cabbage appears on the market during fall and winter months. These heads mature late and are normally smooth, round, and slightly flattened. They are very hard and compact, explains Elsie Bamesberger, Penn State extension consumer education specialist.

PIE CRUST

Three cups flour
One teaspoon salt
One cup Crisco
Three tablespoons water to each cup flour and work it with fork before you add the water to size of peas.

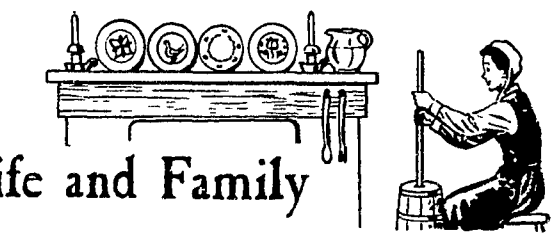
* * *

Mrs. Bitner also sends along this recipe for the ever-popular sugar cookies.

SUGAR COOKIES (LIGHT)
Mrs. Wilmer Bitner,
R1 Millersville

Two eggs
Two cups 10X sugar
One cup Butterine (or Crisco)
One teaspoon vanilla and one-fourth teaspoon lemon
One pinch salt or few grains
One cup thick milk or butter milk
Sift
Three and one-half cups flour
One teaspoon soda
Two teaspoons Calumet baking powder

For the Farm Wife and Family



Mix the sugar and butterine thoroughly with your hands or spoon Then beat eggs one at a time Then the flavor and salt Add the dry ingredients with thick milk or buttermilk Drop on greased cookie sheet with a teaspoon and sprinkle sugar over the top with a raisin or chocolate chip Bake at 400 degrees for 10 minutes. This makes 4 dozen cookies I used Gold Medal flour for better baking.

* * *

For a lunch time treat, serve grilled cheese, tomato, and bacon sandwiches. Broil the bread on one side first. Then spread the other side with butter and add a slice of cheese, tomato, and two strips of bacon. Precook the bacon first if you like it well done. Broil until cheese melts.

Mrs John O Snavely, R2 Manheim writes thus

I enjoy your paper very much Here is a receipt that Mrs David Longenecker, Manheim R2 asked for in a recent paper

SWEET POTATO CUSTARD
Mrs. John O. Snavely,
R2 Manheim

Three cups mashed sweet potatoes
One cup sugar
Three eggs lightly beaten
Three-fourth cup butter
Four cups sweet milk
Pinch of salt

* * *

Mrs Snavely also sends laong a recipe for a walnut cake. Walnuts are plentiful now so why not try this cake as a dessert for that Thanksgiving Dinner?

Turkey and Telephones Make a Better Thanksgiving

When distance separates you from your loved ones on Thanksgiving, or any holiday, nothing shortens the miles so wonderfully as your long distance telephone. It brings everyone together—quickly; lets you share the joy of your holiday happiness. So call long distance this Thanksgiving, or perhaps even the evening before. That way, you can take advantage of the especially low rates after 6 p m and miss most of the heavy Thanksgiving telephone traffic.

From Mrs. S. Wayne Grube, R1 Lititz comes this recipe and household hint.

COCONUT PIE

Mrs. S. Wayne Grube, R1 Lititz

One cup sugar
One-half cup flour
Four egg yolks
Three and one-half cups milk
Butter size of a walnut
One cup coconut

Mix sugar, flour, butter, and egg yolks Then add the milk gradually and last the egg whites (beaten stiff) and coconut. Put in unbaked pie shell. I always put pies in stove first and then light oven This helps to prevent flour from settling in the bottom

* *

Mrs. Grube's household hint: use salad dressing or mayonnaise on plant leaves such as ivy and philodendron.

* * *

That about does it for today We hope everyone of you has a very pleasant Thanksgiving Day We'll be back next week with more of your letters and recipes

Try Gourmet Touch On Fish, Shellfish

Fish and shellfish lend themselves to a variety of special touches designed to bring out their original flavor and make menu-planning and eating fun

Before broiling or baking fish steaks or fillets, pour melted garlic butter over them, suggests Louise Hamilton, extension nutrition specialist of the Pennsylvania State University Or top plain cooked fish with slivered blanched almonds browned in melted butter.

Cooked, canned, or frozen shrimp combined with green peas in a medium cream sauce is delicious poured over hot cooked rice Or wrap scallops or shrimp in half slices of bacon and broil or bake until bacon is crisp.

Q My back porch is jointly connected to both my neighbor's house and my own We need a new porch My neighbor claims that he does not use the porch and refuses to pay half of the expense of putting up a new one I would like to know if I could make him pay his share and how to go about this S G

A If you and your neighbor own the whole porch jointly, you are entitled to reimbursement from your neighbor for his proportionate share of any improvements or repairs to the property made with his consent, or to any repairs made without his consent but after notice to him that they are absolutely necessary to the preservation and enjoyment of the property.

If the porch is not jointly owned but each owns his half, you cannot force your neighbor to pay for repairing his half of the porch unless he consents to the repairs

Q A salesman recently came to our house selling books He had only one sample volume of the set, but managed to talk my wife into signing one of those unconditional contracts, not subject to cancellation When we received the set of books we found them not to be as the salesman described and we were very dissatisfied with them We sent them back to the company but now they are pressing us for payment, regardless of whether or not we accepted the books. What can be done? We feel we have been "took."

L O

A. If the written agreement does not describe the books you intended to purchase, you probably have a good defense to the claim for payment However, if the agreement describes the books, then you cannot modify the written agreement by any oral agreement that preceded it If there is no description in the written agreement, the sale may violate the "sale by sample" provision of the Uniform Commercial Code, thus rendering your contract voidable. Your attorney should be consulted.

Archers Turn in Deer Hunt Violator;

The following story substantiates the generally accepted belief that among bow hunters as well as gun hunters there are many sportsmen and some rascals.

On October 6 an archer in McKean County stopped his auto and shot a broadhead arrow into a fawn deer, killing it. This was an illegal act because only antlered deer were legal game in the special season for bow and arrow hunters then in effect.

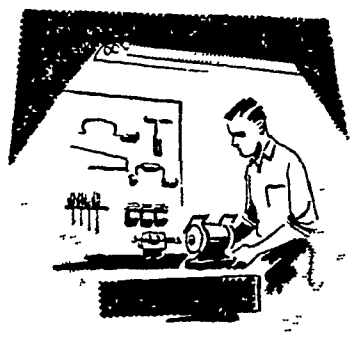
Good farm lighting pays 3 ways!

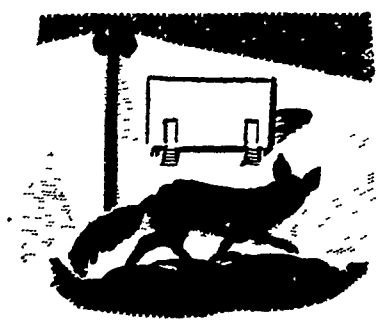
INCREASED PRODUCTION

Better lighting can help increase production on your farm. For example, proper lighting in the poultry house can give you top egg production all winter long. In addition, many repair jobs and other tasks can be done after dark, giving you extra daytime hours for profit-building chores.



GREATER SAFETY

One of the best forms of insurance against injury is having plenty of light wherever you need it. Interiors of farm buildings should have sufficient light, evenly distributed. Well-lighted walkways outdoors lessen nighttime dangers.



CONVENIENCE AND PROTECTION

Darkness never comes to the farmer having a few properly placed electric lights. With flood and spotlights outdoors, and flourescent and other lamp bulbs for indoors, there's a right lamp for each job. Lamps to ease eyestrain and make nighttime chores easier! Lamps for lighting poultry ranges to keep foxes and other wild animals from raiding your flock.

Ask your PP&L farm representative or farm equipment dealer to help plan your farm lighting. Do it now before winter arrives.

From sundown to sunup, good lighting makes farming safer, pleasanter, and more efficient.

Flying Farmers Brave Winter on New York Flight

Fifteen Pa. Flying Farmers braved the cold weather to join an equal number of New York Flying Farmers for a weekend get-to-gether at the home of Mr. and Mrs Gideon Wilber, Duanesburg, N. Y The Wilbers were most congenial hosts and their home and fine motel rooms were made available to the flying farmers on their coldest weekend of the winter so far.

The Wilbers not only are active flying farmers but have caused their flying interests to "catch on" in the community of Duanesburg, which now has almost 10 per cent of its citizens with pilots' licenses as a result of the Wilbers' promotion of aviation since they opened the Duanesburg airport some years ago. A feature article appeared in Flying magazine at that time.

A visit was made by the group on Saturday to Pine Brook Dairy Farm where an outstanding herd of 80 purebred Guernseys were examined in their modern dairy barn outside Schnectady The group toured Schnectady and the massive General Electric plant.

A home style dinner was enjoyed Saturday night after which there was a fine evening of fellowship in the Wilber home.

A number attended church services in a body, at the Reformed Presbyterian Church, Duanesburg, Sunday morning. During the afternoon the group was winging its way homeward.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ritchey from Petersburg, Ohio, came the farthest They reported the outside temperature gauge reading eight degrees coming over Kane, Pa., Saturday morning at 6,000 feet.

Regional Director, L L. Logan, Kennett Square, Pa, with Dan Crouse, and Kenneth Crouse of Chatham were among the Pennsylvanians in attendance. Mr. Logan flew straight line to Newburg, N. Y., and thence north to Albany and west to Duanesburg on Saturday. With better weather forecast for the return they flew straight line home, over the Catskills and Poconos via Livingston Manor, N. Y and Stroudsburg, Pa.

McCulloch Saw-Draw Contest

A new contest in which 150 McCulloch chain saws will be given away free is announced by Conestoga Farm Service, Quarryville and Mast, Saw & Knife Service, Lancaster McCulloch dealers in this area

The contest—called the Saw-Draw—will be open to all persons over 18 years of age, and will last from November until February.

To enter the Saw-Draw a contestant need only secure an official entry blank from the local McCulloch dealer, fill it out, and mail it to McCulloch's home office. Six drawings will be held at two-week intervals, and 25 D-44 chain saws will be awarded each time. For each drawing period, a contestant may submit one entry blank, which must be received in Los Angeles at least a day prior to the drawing date. Drawing will be held on Nov. 30, Dec. 14 and Dec. 28, 1956; Jan. 25 and Feb. 8, 1957

It is not necessary to purchase a saw to enter the Saw-Draw, the dealers emphasized. But if a contestant has bought a new McCulloch chain saw prior to his name's being drawn, he will be awarded three times the advertised list price of the saw he purchased.

The Saw-Draw is not open to persons who live in areas in which such contests are taxed or prohibited, nor is it open to McCulloch employees, distributors, dealers or their families. Winners' names will be posted in McCulloch dealers' stores about two weeks after each drawing. Adv.

Ernie Frey, 18, Wins Reserve At Timonium

$51,000 in premiums were offered, a record high for the Timonium event.

One of the most remarkable bits of showmanship was that of 14-year-old Connie Quesenberry of R1 Stewartstown, Pa., over in York County. In addition to showing the grand champion Shorthorn, she placed first in lightweight Hereford and showed the reserve champion Angus. Her Shorthorn, a 1005-lb dark red was purchased in the 1955 All Shorthorn Feeder Calf sale at Winchester, Va.

Just a week earlier, Connie's ten-year-old brother, Jimmy, Jr., placed first in the Southeast District 4-H Baby Beef Round-Up at Lancaster Union Stock Yards, with a Hereford. They are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Quesenberry, and both are students at Stewartstown.

Lancaster County's Hereford group of five placed fourth, with the following at the halters: Fred Bernhard, R2 Mt. Joy, second heavyweight; Gerald Brandt, R1 Marietta, second lightweight, Joanne Martin, eighth mediumweight; Dorothy Stehman, R3 Lancaster, eighth heavyweight, and Kenneth Newcomer, R2 Manheim, thirteenth mediumweight.

Lancaster County was well represented in both entries and on the sidelines as the record-breaking show got underway. Winners from the Garden Spot included Quesenberry. Champion Hereford was that shown by Joe Walker, which went on to the grand championship, and reserve was an entry of Carlton Croom, Donalsonville, Pa. Topping the Shorthorn show was Miss Quesenerry again, with Arline Tredway, Ashton, Md., in reserve.

Presenting ribbons to winners was Herschel H. Allen, Jr., president of the Eastern National Livestock Show.

Penn State showed the reserve champion open lamb, topped by Virginia Polytechnic Institute, then went on to score first in as champion open pen of three, leading VPI in this class. Champin 4-H and FFA lamb was shown by Arlene E. Bee, Elkridge, Md., reserve was shown by James Gent, Jr., of Worton, Md. Mr. Gent also scored championship in 4H and FFA pen of three lambs, Mr. Bee was reserve. VPI exhibited the grand champion lamb, Penn State grand reserve champion pen of three, with reserve on pen of three awarded Mr. Gent.

CONNIE QUESENBERRY, R1 Stewartstown, York County, this week showed the grand champion Shorthorn steer, a reserve champion Angus steer, and a first in class Hereford steer in the 4H division of the Eastern National at Timonium, Md.
